WAYNE STATE

Law School

Dear Hind,

Your application for admission to Wayne State University Law School has been reviewed by the law admissions committee and we have determined that your credentials are indeed impressive and place you within the applicant pool for continued consideration for admission to Wayne Law for fall 2021. The committee has decided to waitlist your application before a final admissions decision is made. The committee will continue to review waitlist applications and expects to finalize decisions throughout the 2021 admissions cycle. Many waitlist candidates will begin to receive offers of admission after April 15, 2021, while other candidates will remain on the waitlist through the summer as we continue to make offers of admission into August.

We regret that we cannot give you a final decision at this time, however, many candidates from our waitlist in past years have received admission to Wayne Law. In order to set yourself apart and express your continued interest in Wayne Law, please write an email to me that details why you want to attend Wayne Law and what you plan to contribute to our law community as a law student and future attorney. Additionally, if you are in college or graduate school, please submit an updated transcript to LSAC that contains your fall 2020 grades and lists your winter 2021 courses so we receive an updated CAS Report for your application file. Finally, many students move themselves off of our waitlist and into our class by retaking the LSAT. If you think you may want to do this, please know that the sooner we receive a new score, the better, with August 1, 2021 being the last date we will accept a score update.

I expect that you will have questions going forward and I encourage you to call the admissions office at (313) 577-3937 to discuss how to strengthen your application and improve your odds of being admitted to Wayne Law. I will be in contact with you going forward periodically and then more so as we move through the spring and summer months. I look forward to keeping in touch with you throughout the 2021 cycle and to receiving additional information for your application file.

Thank you,

WAYNE STATE

Law School

Dear Ms. Omar:

I wanted to personally let you know that our class is complete and our admissions cycle for fall 2022 is closed. Although we were not able to offer you a seat in this year's class, I did want you to know that we were incredibly impressed with your credentials, and but for our class filling up, you would have been a strong student at Wayne Law. Having said that, if you have not committed yourself to attending law school at another institution this fall, I invite you to reach out to me and we can schedule a time to chat about how you can improve your application for admissions consideration at Wayne Law for fall 2023. I am offering this to you because we welcomed an incredibly strong class this fall and are likely to see an even stronger class next year as Wayne Law continues to climb in the rankings. I want to see you become one of our most competitive applicants if you still see yourself at Wayne Law and I stand ready to assist you.

Conversely, if you have chosen another law school to attend, I want to be one of the first to wish you well as you pursue your future, but also let you know that we admit a robust class of transfer students each year who have completed their first-year of law school and are rising 2Ls. If Wayne Law continues to be of interest to you, please reach out to me after you complete your first-year and we can chat.

Wishing you all the best,

Kathy Fox
